Kick Off Party Artists
May 29th at 11:00 a.m.

Celebrate the kick off of Summer Reading with fun filled activities, and performers. At 11:00 a.m. the courteous mime, Joe Long of OKC will perform. As a yoga student, Joe makes 'leaning into the wind' look easy. Then, there are fun activities on the upstairs tables. Priscilla Howe begins at 1:00 p.m. Priscilla performs in the U.S. and Europe. Each fabulous story starts with a seed of truth!

The Art of Native American Stories
June 5th at 1:00 p.m.

Will Hill and Jehnean Washington act out the Native American stories passed down through ancient story tellers of their tribes. Often based on animal tales, these stories come to life with this exceptional duo. Come early as there are no reserved seats!

The Music of Art
June 12th @ 1:00 p.m.

An award winning artist, Danny loves to show kids how to draw. He's also known for his animal cartoon characters. You won't want to miss this!

Celebrate Flag Day
June 13th 10:00 a.m.

Bring a white tee shirt to the Program Room. D.A.R. will iron on Old Glory. Have fun decorating it for Flag Day & the 4th!

Dancing Eagle
June 19th @ 1:00 p.m.

This dancer is a whirl of bright colors as he demonstrates dances with complicated steps. His performance is outstanding!

Making Canned Music
June 20th @ 10:00 a.m.

Master Gardeners will help you make a mobile out of recycled cans in the program room. Be creative!

Magic Pete
June 26th @ 1:00 p.m.

Quick of hand, and quick of wit, Pete loves working with kids; and they think he does the neatest tricks.
